

Amateur Radio Technician License Class

We're glad to hear that you are interested in entering the 'World of Amateur Radio'. Although there is NO charge for this Class, it is strongly recommended that you purchase the ARRL Technician Class License Manual 4th Edition from the American Radio Relay League (ARRL) (www.arrl.org or call 1-888-277-5289) or other publication outlet (e.g. Amazon). This manual provides you with the necessary study information, current (years 2018-2022) question pool and answer key, plus it serves as your reference guide far beyond the years.

The class will be held online using Google Meet. Google Meet requires a browser (Chrome or the new Edge work best), or the iPhone or Android app. All sessions will be recorded and available on the class web page on <https://www.w3kqn.org>. So, if the below Class Schedule fits your attendance ability, provide the below requested information to have a 'seat' in Class. Send it by email to Rich, N3BVT, n3bvt@arrl.net. The course 'seats' will be assigned on a first come basis. Your Class Registration allows us to prepare lesson materials.

Prior to the first class, it would be beneficial to read at least Chapter 1 of the Manual.
